

9.5 Glasgow
Glasgow Dec 19, 1863

My dear Garrison,

I have but a few moments before post time to send you a few lines, & those I must send condensed. I am in the midst of one old friend here, & you, & the cause, have been the topics of our conversation.

Enclosed is a very imperfect notice of a meeting here on the 17th. I go from hence, on the 21st, to Newcastle upon Tyne, - thence to Leeds, & thence to London.

I am afraid I shall not be able to leave before the 23rd of January. Do not therefore fix any meeting for our previous to the arrival of the steamer that will leave on that day All your friends in Glasgow send their warmest love

If I can get away on the 9th I will, but it seems scarcely practicable I have yet much to do

I recently spent four days with Mrs E. P. Nichol in Edinburgh. She remains your fast friend & longs to see you under her roof.

Excuse the brevity of this

Ever, Yours Lovingly

Geo Thompson
